§ 23.7

agreement with an applicant under §23.7, assign National Health Service Corps personnel to provide health services in or to a health manpower shortage area.

- (b) In assigning National Health Service Corps personnel to serve in a health manpower shortage area, the Secretary will seek to assign personnel who have those characteristics which will increase the probability of their remaining to serve in the health manpower shortage area upon completion of the period of assignment. In addition, the Secretary will apply a weighted-value system in which the first factor listed below is assigned the greatest weight and the second, and third factors are assigned lesser weights in descending order:
- (1) The need of the health manpower shortage area as determined by criteria established under section 332(b) of the Act.
- (2) The willingness of individuals, government agencies, or health entities within the health manpower shortage area to cooperate with the National Health Service Corps in providing effective health services.
- (3) The comments of health professional societies serving the health manpower shortage area.

§ 23.7 What must an entity agree to do before the assignment is made?

- (a) Requirements. To carry out the purposes of section 334 of the Act, each National Health Service Corps site must enter into an agreement with the Secretary under which the site agrees to:
- (1) Be responsible for charging for health services provided by assigned National Health Service Corps personnel;
- (2) Take reasonable action for the collection of the charges for those health services;
- (3) Reimburse the United States the sums required under section 334 of the Act; and
- (4) Prepare and submit an annual report. The agreement will set forth the period of assignment (not to exceed 4 years), the number and type of Corps personnel to be assigned to the site, and other requirements which the Secretary determines necessary to carry out the purposes of the Act.

(b) Termination. An agreement entered into under this section may be terminated by either party on 30-days written notice or modified by mutual consent consistent with section 333 of the Act.
